BRUNSON, S. C., April 20.—Mistaking her for a burglar, Capers Polk shot and probably fatally wounded another at 1 o'clock this morning at their home here. Polk had retired about midnight. Hearing a noise, he reached for his pistol, opened the door of his room, and seeing some one standing at the front door, holding the latch, he fired. Instantly his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Polk, spoke and he realized he had shot her.

Surgeons have not been able to locate the bullet. Mr. Polk is a young man of high respectability, and is almost crazed with grief.

Mary Alma, of the Community of St. Joseph, who was assaulted by three negroes at the Catholic Orphan Asylum, on Elm Grove, received the contents of a large bottle of carbolic acid thrown by a tramp, this afternoon, and is in a serious condition at St. Joseph's Convent. The tramp rapped at the door of the convent and asked for money. Sister Alma said she could not give money, but if he wanted anything to eat it would be given him. He returned a little later, and when the sisters opened the door he dashed the contents of the bottle. The attending physician thinks he might will be saved, but his prostration may result fatally.

Threatening letters were sent to local newspaper publishers recently, stating that if the publishers would not publish the names of the negroes convicted of the Elm Grove outrage, unless they were given another trial, and letters of warning written in a friendly manner, were sent to the superior of the convent and the chief of police. The acid-thrower was a white man, and from the meagre description Sister Alma was able to furnish, the police have arrested several suspects.

press matter, which has been on for nearly two months, was settled to-day by a conference of express and railroad officials and the committee of the telegraph operators. The order of the telegraphers to refuse to handle trains carrying express matter to-morrow brought about the end of the strike.

It was through the efforts of President E. Johnson that the meeting between the committee of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers and President W. Leary was arranged.

Under the agreement, the striking operators will return to work as soon as they can be checked in.

The strikers express themselves as satisfied with the outcome.

NOT THE VIRGINIA
TRAIN WRECKER
(Special to The Times-Dispatch)
ROANOKE, Va., April 23.—Detective Baldwin received a photograph this morning from the chief of police at Norfolk, and there it was—Kennedy, the train wrecker. The photograph does not resemble Kennedy at all. The man in the photograph is a stranger from Erie, Pa., of a man held there who looks like Kennedy, and he will go there and the interesting feature of the committee's first session. It was determined that the cities desiring the convention be called in alphabetical order. The first to be given ten minutes was Norfolk, which to present their several claims. Inducements, Norfolk, Richmond and Roanoke were the cities bidding for the convention, and Norfolk was, therefore, the first to be heard.

Norfolk's Eloquent Plea.

Mr. W. T. Anderson, a prominent Norfolk Democrat, and ex-postmaster of the city, was the first speaker. In an exceedingly happy vein Mr. Anderson painted the glories of the seacoast, its location in June, the accessibility and location of the hotels, the splendor of the convention hall and the accessibility of the city. "We are not asking you to go into the city to hear the convention," as Richmond is doing," said Mr. Anderson. "We offer you the best convention hall in the State, in the heart of the city, and in a stone's throw from four large hotels. It is our wish that you will take you an hour to get to the hall from your hotel and an hour and a half to get back."
